CITY NEWS.

To the Advertising Patrons of the Democrat.

We have already notified many of the advertising patrons of the Democrat that owing to the advancing price of everything used in the publication of a newspaper, and the increased wages of printers and others, we are compelled to adopt a new scale of rates, to commence on the 1st of January, 1864.

We have inclosed a circular to our advertisers generally. The rates will apply to all old patrons, as well as new ones. This change is imperatively demanded by our increased expense in producing the paper, and is reluctantly asked. When the greatly increased circulation of the Democrat is taken into account, the schedule rates do not make it more costly in proportion to publicity given than it has been heretofore.

If any of our old patrons do not feel inclined to adopt the new rates they will please inform us, and should we not, in a reasonable space of time, hear from them, we shall consider them as having assented to the change. If any desire to change their mode of advertising, or to increase or reduce the quantity of matter, they will please call at the office.

Small Cylinder Hoe Printing Press
for Sale.

The Democrat is printed upon a double-cylinder Hoe press; and a single-cylinder press, formerly used by us, is offered for sale. It is of the largest sized platen, and in perfect order, and will be sold at a bargain. Address publishers Democrat for particulars.

The paragraph in yesterday's issue in regard to the arrest of parties charged with kidnapping and running off slaves from Missouri and bringing them to Kentucky also stated that the same parties were charged with counterfeiting money. In the list of names given occurred that of John Clark.
He is not charged with any such offense; indeed, those who know him best esteem him as a man of marked integrity in all his dealings. There are scores of people in Louisville who have known him long, and regard him as a straight-forward man, attending to his line of business in a quiet and unobtrusive manner, and as such he has won their regard and confidence. However guilty those may be whose names his was coupled with, he is not under arrest for dealing in or passing counterfeit money, and we trust that he may not be injured in anywise by his name being mixed up with persons arrested at his house.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Tuesday, Feb. 9.

orderly conduct; bail in $100 of each for 90 days.

$300 for six months.

for 90 days.

warrant; matter sent before the Grand Jury, and George put under bonds.

MONTHLY BUSINESS POLICE COURT.—During the month of January a large amount of business was transacted in the police court, 221 cases being disposed of, as follows:
Murder..... 1
Selling..... 2
Suspected Felony..... 3
Petty Larceny..... 4
Robbery..... 5
Misdemeanors..... 6
Disorderly Conduct..... 7

THE COURT OF INQUIRY.—The court of inquiry for the investigation of the conduct of Generals Negley, McCook and Crittenden is still in session in this city. Yesterday the testimony of Col. Starling and Capt. Hill was taken, which corroborates that given by the other witnesses. The testimony, which is very voluntarily, will be given to the public as soon as the court is through with its labors.
The court will be in session again this morning.

THE AUTHORITIES HAVE TAKEN hold of the street cleaning business in earnest. We are glad to see it, but it will require a great deal of perseverance, labor and money to place them in such a condition as will be creditable to a great city like Louisville. The health of the city, to say nothing of the comfort and pleasure of our citizens, demands that the work now commenced shall continue throughout the year.

BARRECKS ITEMS.—Eighty-four recruits from different points, to be forwarded to their regiments, sixty-three deserters from Nashville, ten from Columbus, Ohio, and eight from Cincinnati, were received at Barracks No. 1 yesterday. One hundred and eighty-one convalescents were transferred to their regiments, and sixteen deserters were sent off in trains, nine to Nashville, three to Cairo, and four to St. Louis.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We regret to announce the death of Charles Buchanan, one of the most promising young men in the city, which occurred early yesterday morning. Mr. Buchanan retired to bed Monday night in perfect health, and about 4 o'clock in the morning awoke, complaining of feeling severe pains across the chest, was sent for, but before he arrived Mr. Buchanan was dead.

We learn that John Smith, an old citizen of this place, and a member of the old firm of Wilcox, Starbuck & Smith, wholesale druggists on Main street, died very suddenly at Henderson, Ky., a few days since. He was sitting in his chair in apparent perfect health and fell back dead.

LOUISVILLE DAILY REVIEW.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that our energetic young friends Fonda & Kieroff propose to start a daily with the above title.
They will no doubt deserve and receive good share of patronage.

Edward Jenks, f. m. c., was yesterday arrested by the sheriff of Jefferson county upon the charge of stealing a horse from Geo.
Fack who resides in the county. He will be tried before a magistrate.

A fight among the officers of the police court of St. Louis last Saturday resulted in breaking the nose of the city marshal, Mr.
Stone, by deputy marshal Brook, who used a red hot poker.

The Fifty-seventh Ohio, two hundred and seventy-seven men, re-enlisted veterans, arrived from the front yesterday. They are en route home on a fairing of thirty days.

A soldier by the name of John Downing was yesterday arrested and lodged in jail upon the charge of shooting at a hack-driver in the upper portion of the city.

We call attention to Mr. H. P. Har-man's advertisement in another column.

ABOLITION POW-WOW.—About twenty-five of the Simon pure got together last night for the purpose of doing the business of organizing an anti-slavery party in Kentucky.
There were perhaps a hundred or more persons present, but they were mere spectators of the proceedings. The actors in the meeting were of the intense sort, but not very harmonious. They passed resolutions, appointed delegates to the 23rd of February Convention, established provisions for a grand State organization, approved the course of Anderson, Clay, Randall and Smith, and ensured the conduct of Mallory and other members of Congress from this State. They appointed a committee to prepare an address, a committee of arrangements, &c., all of which we suppose will be published in due form hereafter.

There has been a movement on foot these last three weeks among our German citizens to erect a monument in honor of the Union soldiers at Cave Hill Cemetery. They have witnessed with deep mortification the fact that while the graves of the deceased rebel soldiers are being neglected, the graves of our brave soldiers are being neglected. They are determined to erect a monument to the memory of our brave soldiers, and to the memory of the Union people of the city of Louisville who have sacrificed their lives for the Union.

There are hundreds of Union soldiers, and as many rebel soldiers, interred at Cave Hill Cemetery. Friend and foe are sleeping their last sleep almost side by side. But while each and every Union soldier's grave is carefully and handsomely adorned with flowers, bearing their names, place of birth, enlistment, &c., and every now and then adorned with a wreath of flowers, by their sympathizing friends, the accessories of Louisville, those of our brave soldiers interred at the same resting place bear a more humiliating testimony to the forgetfulness and indifference of the Union people of the city of Louisville to the men who have sacrificed their lives for the Union and their country's liberty and nationality.

There are hundreds of Union soldiers, and
as many rebel soldiers, interred at Cave Hill
last sleep almost side by side. But while
each and every Union soldier's grave is carefully and handsomely adorned with flowers,
bearing their names, place of birth, enlist-

of our brave soldiers interred at the same
